

year or season. I think it was the same year, but that bass may be an entirely different thing; it may be at such another time that we have nothing to do with it whatever.

BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Well, after the weighing, then what?

A Well, after the weighing of the fish, I think Applegate and his wife and boy went down to their supper and I do not remember seeing them again that evening, although Applegate in his statement quite a while ago, whether it was the four year ago statement or the early statement that he made when he was first questioned this year - Applegate says he saw me on the beach till 10 o'clock that night, which was very probable.

BY MR. PALZER:

Q How long did you spend, how long a time did you spend in his company on that particular occasion?

A When he was weighing the fish?

Q Yes.

A Just a few minutes.

Q Any conversation?

A No conversation; oh, nothing at all except that we
